NANOWRIMO

All aspiring authors are invited to begin working toward the goal of writing a 50,000-word novel by 11:59 pm on November 30.

Sign up and track your word count throughout the month. Attend write-ins for your chance to hang out with other Wrimos, have snacks and coffee, and be inspired to write. Bring along sketchbooks, laptops, or whatever you use to write.

On December 3, Jill Swenson of Swenson Book Development will be here to tell us what comes next after you finish your novel — editing, agents, & more.
