FULL TEXT

MENASHA - The Elisha D. Smith Menasha Public Library will hold a year-long celebration of its 125th anniversary. Over the next several months, special events and programs will highlight the library's history, showcase current offerings, and focus on the future of the library.

The library will host its premiere anniversary event –a virtual concert, Music Notes for 125 Years of Service –live streaming it on Facebook @MenashaLibrary at 7 p.m. Thursday to commemorate and celebrate the signing of the charter for the Menasha Free Library 125 years ago. Performers will include Randy Peterson, Still Blue (Christopher Evanson), Elvis John, and several more.

"The Menasha Library has been a valuable asset to the community for 125 years, providing patrons with free access to traditional and digital information. The Library also provides learning programs and entertainment for patrons of all ages," said Bob Golz, chairman of the Library Board.

While the COVID-19 pandemic has limited in-person community use of the facility during most of 2020, library patrons continue to have access to books, magazines, CDs, DVDs and other materials via online ordering at menashalibrary.org with curbside pickup. For more information, call 920-967-3690.
