FULL TEXT

Kathryn A. Wicihowski, a former Menasha elementary school teacher, was honored at the June meeting of the Elisha D. Smith Public Library Board of Trustees for her 10 years of exceptional service as a library trustee. During her term on the board, she served as the board's secretary, chaired and served on several committees, and coordinated fundraisers for the library's endowment fund.

At the meeting, Library Board Chairman James C. Englebert recognized her for her strong commitment to public service, her many volunteer hours working on behalf of the library, and her vision for planning the library's role in the community.

Menasha Library Trustee Kathryn Wicihowski accepts a gift from Menasha library's board chairman, James Englebert, honoring her 10 years of service as a trustee.
